Laurel Schmidt

        GUI- "Graphical User Interface" (windows and apple etc. use it) GUI is what you can see on the screen. Text, flies, images, etc.
CLI- "Command-Line Interface" Is what's "behind" the screen (or rather scene) all of the coding happens there, you can see it unless you navigate through your computer and certain apps.